Why didn't my order qualify for Free Shipping?

Your order may not qualify for the following reasons:

1. It's a special order.
2. Item is shipped directly from the manufacturer not B&H.
3. The item is out of stock or backordered.
4. The delivery address is a PO box.
5. The item's particular qualities like it's size, weight, type of material or other things disqualify it.

Some products cannot be shipped through the mail.

United States

We ship nationwide across the contiguous (lower 48) states, as well as Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and other USA territories.

International

We ship most international packages via DHL. Shipping fees are calculated on a combined basis of weight, value (for insurance purposes) and destination. Some orders are shipped in multiple parcels. We do not add additional fees to your order if we ship in multiple parcels.

Some items cannot be exported due to manufacturer or government restrictions. You will receive an on-screen notice if you attempt to put an item in your shopping cart or check out an order containing items which we cannot send to you.

We also reserve the right to block certain products from being shipped outside the USA.

Where We Ship

We ship around the globe. Please check below to acquaint yourself with any exceptions and conditions that may apply to your neck of the woods.

We currently do not ship to Iran, Sudan, Cuba, Syria, North Korea and Uganda.
